

What are we consulting on today?

- We are updating residents on what the evidence has shown us so far on:
 - Where development should take place
 - Where Local Green Spaces should be designated and hence where development will not take place
 - Which Key Views should be preserved
 - Our objectives, including design objectives.
- We need your views before we can progress further our ideas for enhancing the environment