

Key messages

- The Plan is being led by a Steering Group comprised primarily of local residents along with some Seaford Town Councillors
- We need to think forward 10-15 years
- The Plan must be based on evidence not opinion
- The Plan will be voted on by Seaford residents in a referendum; it will not be accepted by Lewes District Council unless it is supported by a majority of those voting.